BILL NOW IN COMMITTEE

Santiago Iglesias Says Many of the Senators Are Favorably Inclined to Proposition.

Santiago Iglesias, president of the Free Federation of Workingmen of Porto Rico, who has been in this country for several months trying to invoke the sympathy of Congress toward granting citizenship to the citizens of that island possession of the United States, declared last Maj. Arthur Brooks, commanding the night that the hope of Porto Ricans was nearer consummation than ever before and that many of the members of the citizenship to his fellow-countrymen. "Fourteen years ago the people of Porto Rico hailed the coming of the American troops with great rejoicing," he said. Pledges were made that they would be treated as fullfledged American citizens. From that day to this the people of Porto Rico have received no recognition whatver as American citizens, and this fact the motive for a profound discontent in the whole island—a fact that is certainly accountable for the obstacles met with n the general development of the labor
